Change of Poles and The Great Universal Experiment

By: E.N. Vselenskiy, Doctor of Physical and Mathematical Sciences, Academician of the International Academy of Sciences of Nature and Society - Winner of the Vernadsky prize.

This is a report from the 4th International Conference “National Medicine of Russia - the Past, Present and Future”.

Scientists of the whole world know about the forthcoming Change of Poles of planet Earth. It has been predicted by Japanese scientists 16 years ago.

Before that, on October, 13th, 1917 there was the appearance of the Virgin Mary to three little herdsmen in the city of Fatima (Portugal) with the message having huge significance for the future of all Mankind.

This message contained the information on change of poles and planetary accident – so-called "Doomsday", and also an explanation of the forthcoming “solar and lunar miracle” occurrence in the sky of two suns and two moons. (The phenomenon which will be observed as overlapping three-dimensional and four-dimensional spaces). The message from Fatima was brought to Rome, but the Catholic Church decided to keep it a secret.

The magnetic field of the Earth started to weaken about 2000 years ago. A sharp fall of its intensity had been noted 500 years ago which has amplified during the last 50 years and its powerful fluctuations began in 1994. The southern magnetic pole of the Earth was displaced some times hundreds, some times thousands of kilometres from the standard site. People began to experience constantly emotional ups and downs. During such periods it is necessary to keep the peace on the planet in every possible way.

Railway and other kinds of accidents have become more frequent. Magnetic maps already do not match anymore. Birds, being guided by magnetic lines of the Earth in their migrations, do not land where they should and whales, seals and dolphins run aground (in July 2000, in Dagestan 200 thousand seals were lost).

There is the so-called “Schuman’s Frequency” - the waves coming from the planet ("palpitation" - or rhythm of the Earth), with a specific frequency – 7.8 Hertz. It was so stable for a long time, that the military adjusted their devices according to it. However this frequency has started to increase: in 1994 - 8.6 Hertz, in 1999 - 11.2 Hertz, and at the end of 2000 - about 12 Hertz. It is supposed, that when Schuman's frequency will reach 13 Hertz, there will be a change of poles. When displacement of poles of the planet comes nearer, there is a strongly marked fluctuation of the electromagnetic field. At this time people become extremely emotionally unstable.

Change of poles on our planet occurs about each 13,000 years that leads to global planetary catastrophe and loss of consciousness of all living beings (deleting of memory). It is connected with the cycle of equinoxes which period takes approximately 26,000 years (more precisely 25,920 years).

After passage of the points of maximal approach and the maximal withdrawal of the Solar system concerning the centre of our Galaxy which corresponds to a half-cycle of this cycle, a change of poles takes place on the Earth.

At this time the axis of the Earth describes a circle around twelve constellations of Signs on the Zodiac (being in each of them approximately 2,100 years).

Now our Galaxy and planet Earth are at the junction of two epochs. On 11th of August, 1999 there was a solar eclipse (doomsday) and "The Parade of Planets" - the Epoch of the 5th Race has ended and the epoch of the 6th Race has begun.

It is marked by a quantum transition of our planet, the Galaxy and the Universe on a new quantum level of existence, and together with them and all mankind, as an integral part.

This transition occurs each 5,125 years, when the Parade of Planets may be observed. Then all the planets are aligned in one line, then the planets disperse, after that a tunnel has been formed, which passes freely an impulse of the amendment from the Sun to our Planet. Due to this impulse a quantum transition takes place with Change of Poles, change of an inclination of axes of revolution and other parameters of all planets of the Solar System.

When planet Earth reaches a critical point in which there are changes, everything starts to collapse. The reason for this event is the magnetic field of our planet used by us for understanding ourselves. This is the storehouse of our memory (information). In this sense we are similar to computers. We need a magnetic field for data processing and its storage. Even with temporary switching-off of power supplies of a computer, all its operative memory will be erased, as the electromagnetic field, supporting it, vanishes. Similarly, there is also a deleting of memory of the human at the displacement of the poles.

At the time of a full moon, and also the day before and the day after, crime rates increase: murders, rapes and robberies become more frequent. It is caused by the forces of the Moon which causes bubbles of the magnetic field of the Earth. These pretty bubbles tear power communications and force unbalanced and emotional people to overstep the bounds.

When the last change of poles occurred about 13,000 years ago the civilization of Atlantis (the Fourth Race) was brought to ruin. From a scientific point of view this is a planetary catastrophe which can bring transient and awful consequences.

Its strong displays will begin at the change of polarity of the magnetic poles of the Earth that will lead to displacement of the terrestrial axis, moving of continents, flooding, and eruptions of volcanos, earthquakes and to sharp changes of the climate.

The ice which has collected for many centuries in Greenland, on the North Pole and in Antarctica, possessing enormous weight, can shift terrestrial platforms to the equator under the action of centrifugal and gravitational forces.

When will there be the next change of poles? According to various sources (mediums, seers, etc.) this special point in time will be December, 2012. So, for example the calendar of ancient Maja (which with surprising accuracy amazes modern scientists) comes to an end on December, 21st, 2012.

The last record in the calendar: "Further there is no time ... ". Saint John's "Revelation" also speaks about it. (Ch. 10, verse 6): "also living for ever and ever..., that time will not be any more". Here there is no instruction for the date, but this special phenomenon – absence of time is marked. Now we just experience this process of change of the poles, known in numerous predictions as the Apocalypse, or "Doomsday".

The process of Change of Poles on our planet is being carried out, since the year 2000, and will be prolonged till December, 2012. In 2013 the Earth will finally enter the constellation of Aquarius.

It is known, that our memory is connected and supported by an electromagnetic field of Earth. At the change of poles there will be a period of three days when this field will completely disappear.

The memory of former inhabitants of Atlantis was erased by the mixture of poles (practically all the knowledge has been lost). They returned to a barbarous condition compelled to return to instincts of survival - though before, this civilization was of a very high level of development (they used flying objects with gravitational engines, laser installations, etc.)

A long time passed before people found the ability for development.

At the moment of the change of poles of planet Earth, temporary switching off of the electromagnetic field of the planet will occur and as a consequence, destruction from the 1st to the 7th level of crystal lattices, energy-informational fields of Consciousness of the Earth takes place.

Since the memory of humans and computers exists due to the electromagnetic field of the Earth, during the moment of change of poles there will be a deleting of the memory of people (life experience of the person with erased memory will be up to the standard of a newborn child) and deleting of computer maintaining programs and the information of its carriers of all computers on the Earth. It represents a serious problem and threat for the life of mankind because of the failure of computers operating military objects and nuclear power stations that can lead to unpredictable consequences.

The change of poles will lead to displacement of Northern and Southern poles of the equator that will cause instant thawing of ice of the Arctic regions and Antarctica, and a rising level of the Worlds oceans of 77 meters (flood). Scientists warned about it in a telecast “Week of Accidents”. Such floods occur on a regular basis each 5,125 years (its enough to recollect the information from the Bible about Noah’s ark).

The Sphinxes in Egypt (according to isotope analysis – age of 5.5 million years) have layered structure as they were repeatedly flooded with water and they were at the bottom of the sea.

Some time ago scientists found a baby mammoth on the North Pole which had green grass in its stomach which testifies to the instant death which had occurred because of the change of poles. From this it becomes clear the reason of extinction of the dinosaurs – instant ecological catastrophe.

Now there will be no planetary catastrophe and the Flood. Under the influence of coming cosmic energies all living creatures on our planet will have a mutation (human beings – transmutation).

On the Earth this transition began on August, 11th, 1999 and will be prolonged until December 19th,

Mankind has reached that period when 1.5 billion people are ready to make the shift of consciousness into four-dimensional space. They completely realize that it is impossible to live further the same way and that it is necessary to pass to a higher level of consciousness and comprehension.

Now many people are at the crossroads: to continue technocratic development and to destroy the planet and to be destroyed, or to pass to a spiritual level of comprehension and to develop further, not destroying, but restoring ecology of consciousness and the inhabitancy.

For transition to a new level of development it is necessary, that on the Earth are about 169,000 Jesus-like beings which will render such a strong influence on other people, that all the population of our planet will find a higher level of consciousness through the integral planetary field of comprehension of all mankind. (Vernadsky named this field the “Noosphere of the Earth”).

Inhabitants of vanished Atlantis were representatives of the 4th Race; we are representatives of the 5th Race where evolution comes to an end. After transition, in 2013, on the Earth in the fourth overtone of four-dimensional space there will be only representatives of the 6th Race.

Transition into four-dimensional space is promoted by high-frequency radiations from space which began to increase intensively since 2000.

The sacred codes which are necessary for Spiritual awakening and evolutionary change began transfer to the Sun, the Earth, other planets of the Solar System and our Galaxy with these radiations

Some people will not be capable of enduring these radiations and will be lost during the transition because of the low vibrations, but spiritually, physically healthy (cleared) people will endure such transition freely.

The Epoch of Immortality takes over from the Epoch of Reincarnation when the immortal soul moves from one body into another. The cycle of transformations comes to an end, and as a result of cosmic mutation the body of Man as well as the soul becomes immortal.

Under the influence of cosmic radiation coming from Space, the ozone cloud around the Earth gradually disappears. Direct influence of space beams amplifies; therefore all living beings have a mutation (reorganization).

Human beings are going through transmutation of physical, emotional, mental, etc. bodies which is accompanied by "funny" illnesses (indispositions), a syndrome of chronic weariness, unknown illnesses, accompanied rise in temperature (combustion of toxins) and reorganization of all systems of the organism.

Transmutation – the most complicated physiological process proceeding at a level of molecules, atoms and micro leptons of a cell. In a human body there will be such changes which will bring a body to a new condition and will allow it to change to a feed by energy of the Cosmos. In the process of this reorganization of the organism, the need for food will gradually decrease, and then will completely disappear.

Because all energy sources on the planet (food, water, air) are ecologically polluted and the rescue of Mankind will consist of - that people will gradually depart from all of it and will pass to an energy supply (nourishment) direct from Space.

The Cosmic mutation of the Earth will be carried out at first, and then cells of the human body which successfully endured a mutation will be programmed with the code of a species of the man of the 6th Race which will replace the 5th Race.

Activation of the matrix of programs of the 6th Race began on September 13th, 1999.

Each of us can receive the code and become the person of a new civilization – The 6th Race. For this purpose it is necessary to “tower” (ascend) spiritually, which means to realize oneself is a particle of the universe - to obtain Space consciousness.

At the moment of the change of poles the Great Transition is taking place. Creatures of the lowest worlds (infraworlds) are enabled to rise to higher worlds, and the Human being – up to the level of Divine Human. The task of each reasonable person is to help these creatures to adapt within this new space (to help them evolve and to train them to observe laws of new space).

For this reason we observe this transition in the form of degradation of the population on the physical plane. Now there are people who say: “Put me in prison – I am able to do nothing; there they will feed me free of charge”.

Creatures of the lowest worlds bring elements and attributes of their world in our physical world (the hippies, punks, crooners of a low level, vagabonds, poor, etc.) They bring into our world: the unwillingness to work fairly, larceny, violence, murders. The fear, a fashion of tattoos, clothes with symbols of death, bhoots in the form of hoofs of the devil, etc. If reasonable Man will not train them to carry out laws of positive space he can fall a victim to the lowest creatures (to degrade) himself.

If a person will learn to create around itself multilayered, torsion, protective fields from the spiritual bioplasm of Love, Fire and Light it can protect the memory from deleting and pass to a new step of evolution in four-dimensional space.

However, with the display of aggression, fears and low desires the person automatically "fails" in three-dimensional space. If protection is not present, the most valuable – memory of the person, be it the businessman or the academic, will be erased, i.e. its memory will represent “a white piece of a paper” as the memory of a newborn child, and even worse –intuitive memory of past lives (reincarnations) will be erased.

On the physical plane such a person will be the patient of a mental hospital. He will forget the names of objects, will not be able to speak, and he should study all anew.

Clearly, such an individual will not represent any advantage for society. Already there are many people, partially or even completely, who have lost their memory (original epidemic of amnesia). Modern medicine does not know, with what this is connected, and cannot explain these phenomena or to cure it.

Each of us still has a choice:

During the next 13,000 years, with erased memory, to start evolution again (to collect the information from zero), through another set of reincarnations and to become mankind of the Fifth Race again, whose representatives we are;

Or

To rescue our planet, having protected it and to “tower” (ascend) spiritually by following evolutionary steps and to pass from the level of Soul to the level of Spirit – Divine Humanity, the Sixth and the Highest Race.

Unfortunately, there is no time, and everyone deserves that destiny which corresponds to a level of its consciousness!

So, now our planet purposefully and promptly comes nearer to the major moment of Spiritual Transformation. This process is unavoidably connected with the Spiritual Enlightenment of Mankind and its output on a new level of cosmic mentality. The terms of Spiritual Transformation are absolutely undoubtedly connected with events on the Universal scale.

Transformation does not mean destruction: our world will be transmuted to a reality of more subtle vibrations of four-dimensional space. But, as in our Universe there is the law of Freedom of Will and Freedom of Choice which is of no help to all those who prefer to stay further in illusion of our three-dimensional world and do not care about their spiritual perfection.

Years before the end of Quantum Transition in December, 2012 are encountered, according to the Divine Plan of the accelerated evolution of earthmen, from this moment the person should raise the frequency of his vibrations up to 55-89 Hz which will correspond to the minimal spiritual level of the Divine plan so that he could pass without serious consequences into the new space of the Golden Age.

We should live not only for ourselves, but also for others, create good and be honest in our thoughts. The accumulation of spiritual potential is now the main thing. Perfection – main principle of the universe. Compassion towards one another, love thy neighbour, belief in the future in everything, that is necessary for our own perfection. Do not aspire to riches and luxury; it is ridiculous during the moment of the decision of destiny of mankind. Our materialism puts the brakes on development of spirituality.

Now powerful energy of all kinds is coming from the Centre of our Galaxy and the Universe and creates preconditions for dynamic instability of all types of fields on planet Earth, and in the whole of our Solar System.

Critical situations at which transformation of the Earth and Mankind can occur at any moment were created. What people name "Doomsday" has already begun and will occur much more quickly, than many assume.

The physical, material world promptly and steadily collapses, and together with it the past life of terrestrial civilizations, people possessing physical bodies fades.

From a civilization of people-destroyers, with the changed Mother Earth, a civilization of a new evolutionary level – people-creators, will very soon start to actively develop. All of you living now on this planet are not only witnesses to this historical moment, but are also its direct participants.

It is time to realize, that the time we are living in now is the End of Times - to be expressed more precisely – the End of Time anticipating an instant output of many billions of Consciousnesses, to the limits of three-dimensional reality and transition of all people to their existence in four-dimensional space.

If people now cannot even partially reduce a destructive tornado of their own destructive sensual-cogitative (thinking) activity, the whole Earth will be laid down in such extreme energy conditions, by estimated consequences of these cataclysms, there will be nobody left.

Inevitably the approaching wave of cataclysms will carry away at once, hundreds of millions of human lives. The accompanying disasters, incurable illnesses and ecological pollution will carry away from the physical plane of the Earth, more than one billion people. About one and a half billion people can be destroyed in numerous wars with application of weapons of mass destruction (chemical, bacteriological and even nuclear). This is our immediate prospect if we shall not change spiritually and we shall not cease to destroy ourselves.

The map of the World in a few years will change unrecognizably: many states will disappear altogether; others will continue their pitiful existence which has turned fatal struggle for physical survival into world domination.

Huge global changes will touch practically all corners of the planet, where during many millennia, multilayer formations of destructive energy of various qualities and levels have been collected. These places are oozing ulcers on the physical body of the Earth.

The fiery light of transformation cannot rescue either money, nor authority, underground bunkers, but only Spirituality. It will be impossible for low Consciousness to get into the new changed World under any contracts, nor for any payment. Some do not know that it is that very "Doomsday" which they were so afraid, and it has already come.

On reception of this information many will start to cooperate with the Spiritual centres and Forces of Good Will, and will stop, at last, their useless attempts to reach material priorities and will turn their hearts to Spiritual spheres though, as a rule, the person neglects any predictions and hopes on "perhaps". But people have written down "programs of destruction" into their destinies which are still in their auras and sooner or later, if we don't neutralize them, they will work.

History remembers the destruction of the "Titanic" which was predicted by one person who tried to prevent it but was declared a madman and was put in prison.

Planetary catastrophe can be transient and bring awful consequences. It can begin at the change of polarity of magnetic poles of the Earth which will lead to moving of continents, displacement of a terrestrial axis, flooding, eruptions, earthquakes and sharp changes of climate that will be connected with the unstable position of the Earth.

The ice which has collected for many centuries in Greenland, on the North Pole and in Antarctica, possessing enormous weight, can shift terrestrial platforms to the equator under the action of centrifugal and gravitational forces (there is evidence that the huge layer of ice in the ocean around the North Pole has thawed and a passage of 1.6 km width has been formed).

From these cataclysms it will be impossible to be rescued even on flat areas of the planet. Thus Moscow will appear in an equatorial part, and the temperature can quickly rise even over 100 degrees Celsius. There is one more danger trapping Moscow which is numerous karst caves under the city, and also the emptiness which has formed as a result of artesian waters which have been taken for the needs of the city. (as is known literally, Moscow "floats" in the middle of a huge underground lake). Pessimistic predictions forecasts the whole city can fall entirely through into this emptiness and caves.

Economic, financial (crisis of the financial system of Russia on August, 18th, 1998), social, political and other structures of society collapses as these structures are supported only by people. When people are losing control of themselves, everything around starts to fall to pieces.

As a rule, displacement of poles and displacement of consciousness occurs simultaneously 5-6 hours prior to the moment of displacement visual phenomena are often observed. Three-dimensional and four-dimensional spaces start to get mutually into each other and to cooperate. The three-dimensional consciousness starts to recede gradually and we move up to a new level of consciousness.

When the crystal lattice of three-dimensional space starts to collapse, all the objects created from artificial materials disappear. It is one of the reasons why we cannot find traces of the previous civilizations. Only the things made of natural materials (stone, wood, etc.), being in resonance with vibrations of the Earth, for example the Pyramids or constructions of the type such as Stonehenge can escape the displacement of the poles that repeatedly occurred. They are kept, even when all other objects will literally be swept away from the face of the Earth.

When synthetic objects start to disappear, suddenly there will appear objects of four-dimensional space. The nature gets unprecedented colours and forms.

The arrival of new cosmic energies (quantum jump) causes not only displacement of poles, but also destruction of old structures of crystal lattices of consciousness (memory) of the planet. This process is aggravated by nuclear explosions (for example, during tests of nuclear weapons), failure of nuclear power stations and psychotropic and mental wars.

All this leads to deterioration of ecology of the Earth and additional breakdown of its crystal lattice in many places. As a result, as well as in the days of Atlantis, existential levels have been opened. This caused millions of spirits of other worlds which have no right to be on the Earth, to have rushed into our world. It has broken all covers of protection, and our planet has turned into a mad world.

It is enough to analyse news broadcasts on TV: America – tornados and fires; Japan – earthquakes, hurricanes and typhoons; China and Primorye Territory – flooding; Kaliningrad, Saratov – fires; failures of atomic power stations (in Chernobyl, in Japan and the USA, etc.); destruction of submarines “Komsomolets” and "Kursk"; terrorist attacks in Moscow and in Russia; and also criminalization of society of the whole planet (International Terrorism), etc. For three weeks from August 12th till September 2nd, 2000 Russia suffered losses from planetary accidents at a rate of nearly US$1 billion ($100 million – rise of the submarine "Kursk", more than $400 million – flooding in Primorye Territory, a few millions – repair of burned down Ostankino towers and losses from the hurricane in Balashikha – 27 thousand people remained without a roof over their heads and without power, plus repairs to three failed radio stations).

All this is aggravated by the influence on our mentality of thousands and thousands of panicking, howling creatures from other spaces (in modern terms – demons), enhanced by abilities in telepathy and telekinesis which are rushing not only through the atmosphere of our planet, but through the brain, body, soul and spirit of the inhabitants of Earth.

Being installed in the bodies of earthmen, such creatures cause deformation of consciousness of the body of the person in conformity with their own structure, leading to formation of moral and physically ugly creatures.

A not so cheerful picture, especially if you consider that the person starts to perceive visions, to hear extraneous voices, which is the consequence of possessions which provoke it at times to suicide, madness or others mental disorders. Modern psychiatry cannot explain these phenomena today.

Destruction of the crystal lattice of Consciousness (memory) of the Earth leads to destruction and deleting of memory of people. On 7th August, 2000 in Nevzorov's telecast (popular TV show) they showed a number of people who had dropped out of a life, lost memory and not remembering. On carrying out examination under hypnosis, it was established that full loss of memory (amnesia) over certain intervals of time had occurred.

Americans spent more than $30 million for the protection of computers against deleting memory (Y2K – The millennium bug - The zero effect of 2000), Russia – about $3 million. Fears were in vain – this effect took place. So, on September 16th and 19th 1999, in Moscow on the Leningrad highway, all home and bank computers “crashed”. Research has shown that the reasons for this were partially erased programs loading into these computers. Teachers of many schools and institutes, during this moment themselves noted temporary loss of memory, despite their professional training. (they knew their subject by heart).

In places of fracture of the crystal lattice of Consciousness of the Earth we observe constantly repeating accidents for example: a depression in the Dmitrovsk highway in Moscow where a motor vehicle fell through; massive accident of an oil tanker and a trolley bus where people were burned alive, and many had received heavy burns; broken oil and gas pipes; air crashes etc.

The lexicon of traffic policemen has included the term “a negative geopathogenic zone” or a zone of higher danger, and abroad there are even special traffic signs for such places.

When the planet Earth passes from one constellation into another, the influence of the first constellation accordingly decreases and the influence of the second constellation starts to dominate. At this moment we have passed from the constellation of Pisces to the constellation Aquarius. For human beings it means a quantum transition from the level of Man (5th Race – 3rd dimension) to the level of Divine Human (6th Race – 4th dimension).

Four-dimensional space is characterized by the fact that all our ideas will instantly materialize. For the person who has not learned to think positively, it will be a real hell (all its fears become a reality). Therefore, schools training positive thinking and spirituality are now especially necessary.

As soon as there is a falling intensity of the magnetic field, it will seem as though the Earth will disappear for you, and you will appear in a Great Emptiness. The duration of this "lag" takes 3.5 days. Then life will return, but at a level of the fourth overtone of four-dimensional space. You will appear in an absolutely new world whose existence you could not imagine before although earlier you visited there repeatedly (in a dream, for example), but your memory of it is usually erased.

The majority of people will make such a transition at an unconscious level, i.e. through death and birth. In this case you become like a baby who does not know anything, either about things, or about their colours. Having entered the new world, in the beginning you can understand nothing, but there you will meet two beings – mother and father (your new parents) who will love you and care for you. After you enter the fourth overtone, you will require about two years to grow and mature. Then you will pass into the fifth overtone.

At conscious transition in four-dimensional space (in a protective field of Love) people will keep their adult bodies and memory (knowledge and comprehension). There you will be almost the same, as now, but absolutely naked. Clothes will not come into the new world with you (artificial things will be gone). Here you can instantly materialize clothes according to your memory (according to your taste).

The anatomic structure of your body will undergo dramatic changes. Your atomic weight will be transformed into energy. Separate atoms will be divided by phenomenal distance. Basically your body will consist of energy – it will turn into light. Tsiolkovsky named this condition, "Radiant Mankind".

In the new world you begin to create your own reality by your own mental forms. Here your nourishment will be energetic and you will be able to instantly materialize any desirable meal.

A necessary condition of staying in the fourth overtone of four-dimensional space is spirituality, love and observance of ethics "do not harm", as everything that you are afraid and frightened of, will instantly materialize (snakes, spiders, mice, scorpions, etc.). That is why it is necessary to think of peace, love, beauty and harmony.

If fear follows you into four-dimensional space, you begin to create there your own reality and instantly you will find yourself face to face with the bare-faced horror in image, for example, the murderers, pursuing you. Then you will immediately have a weapon in your hand from which you shoot at the enemy. As soon as the shot fires, you will there and then "fall through" into three-dimensional space as you will represent the set of vibrations of your Consciousness of the low frequency, corresponding to the third overtone of three-dimensional space (a principle of similarity) in which communication between cause and effect is divided in time.

Thus the person will be back, rejected by the greed, avidity, fury, anger, aggression, violence, debauch, fears, stresses, experiences, depressions, condemnation, mania of persecution, despondency and other defects, into three-dimensional space, where he will completely lose memory, to turn into the cave person and will start evolution anew.

The three-dimensional space – an ideal place for creation of restrictions and development of sacrificial consciousness which develops as an inevitable victim, i.e. as the person, refusing to understand that it creates the reality, and considering, that everything occurs to it according to its will (the ideas and acts themselves creates around a person a hell or paradise) .

Thus in four-dimensional space the quality of ideas will have paramount value. This is what Jesus Christ meant, speaking about cleanliness of ideas, love, unity and care about thy neighbour.

You the last, who incarnated on the Earth in the 5th Race, all children who are born now after August, 11th, 1999 belong to the 6th Race – we have to learn from them, they know more, than us and they will help us during transition. You are obliged by your incarnation (embodiment) to the destiny which has prepared the better fate for you.

Your happiness is in your hands! Everyone living on the planet has a chance to become the person of the New Era, the owner of super opportunities, in comparison with what you possess now.

Everyone has to believe in the essence of an event, has to believe that he can become the person of the New Era. The new, 6th Race is more perfect, its harmonious development is guaranteed by the Creator of the Universe. The time of the new civilization has come, for you are its beginning.

The new civilization will render habitable open spaces on the Earth and the Universe. You can make sure of it yourself if you want. Mankind of the 6th Race becomes immortal; the brain will be opened 100%, unlike 3-4% now. Experience and knowledge of past lives will be restored.

Your appearance will change. Your external features will be kept, but in details everyone will find that perfection about which now there is but a remote concept.

The new person will be beautiful with ideal beauty. All people who will pass transmutation will be young. Children will mature, and older persons will get younger becoming 20-30 years old. Height of the person will be from 170 cm up to 300 cm. People won't have dark skin anymore, it will get lighter. Hair – straight or curly as you want. Colour of hair –will be from light to brown. Eyes – from blue and dark blue to green, black and brown eyes will get lighter.

The human appearance will be brought to perfection, and your opportunities will be boundless.

People will possess unusual abilities and talents which now only singles possess. Each person of the 6th Race will be ingenious. The main operating force for the 6th Race will be not machinery, but mind power which will operate on matter and transform it.

Mankind basically will communicate in the language which does not know borders, in the language of telepathy though on the planet inhabitants will communicate on one common language. Mankind will receive the open exit into space, so now the field of your activity is the whole Universe.

There will be male and female element (source), for they are eternal. Personal attachments will be kept, but they will rise to another level. Contacts on the intimate plane will be kept. Everyone will have the opportunity to find their second half.
